

Celebrate with us, 175 years of service to God's people.
Together we can continue Mother Theresa's work, trusting God in all that we do.

On October 24, 1833, Caroline and two other young women began their religious life in a convent in Neunburg vorm Wald, Germany. The new congregation they founded, the School Sisters of Notre Dame, would be devoted to educating young women from the lower and middle classes to become devout mothers who were able to accept the task of the Christian formation of their families. Caroline was convinced this was the only way to change society. In 1835, Caroline pronounced her perpetual religious vows and chose the name Mary Theresa of Jesus.

In everything she did, Mother Theresa relied completely on the guidance and providence of God, believing God's will was revealed by paying close attention to the signs of the times. She refused no sacrifice, no pain, no suffering to follow the path pointed out to her by God. Today, 3,700 School Sisters of Notre Dame across Europe, North America, South America, Africa, and Asia continue Mother Theresa's mission of education with a special commitment to women, youth, and persons who are poor.
